

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The Indiana Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home because I receive considerably less calls weekly from unwanted telemarketers.

Do not preempt Indiana state Telephone Privacy laws in favor of adopting one lower national standard.

I do not want to receive calls from companies that I might have previously done business with. I consider Indiana's law to be very important.